DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the amendments filed 4/24/08. No claims have been amended, added, or canceled. Acknowledgment is made of the IDS filed 4/24/08. Claims 1-36 are pending prosecution.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-36 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. More specifically, there are multiple embodiments in which a different entity determines, looks up, etc. For example, claims 9-21 cannot co-exists are a disparate system is required. Appropriate corrections are required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1, 22, and 30 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being anticipated by Steely Jr et al (USPAT 5,829,051) further in view of Oguchi and Ono (provided in the IDS).

7. As to claims 1, 22, and 30, Steely Jr et al teaches a method, and computer program for determining a digital signature by at least one provider node in the network system (abstract); looking up the digital signature in an index of signatures (col 8, 49-67), and forwarding a previously compressed version of the requested file that has been stored at an intermediate node when the digital signature is found in the index of signatures (col 2, lines 46-66).

However, Steely Jr. does not specifically indicate that the digital signature is of a stored file.

Oguchi and Ono teaches a provider server that includes a record which is indexed by a hash value computed from a particular file (4/11)

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention to incorporate the teachings of Oguchi and Ono into those of Steely Jr to increase system security.

Conclusion

8. Applicant's submission of an information disclosure statement under 37 CFR 1.97(c) with the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(p) on 4/24/08 prompted the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE

FINAL. See MPEP § 609.04(b). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
